

Center for American Political Studies (CAPS)

Seminar Series - Spring 2001

Harvard University - Department of Government

---

---

*Friday, February 2nd - "Over the Top: Politics and Lawsuits in the Cigarette Wars"

Martha Derthick, Professor of Government and Foreign Affairs, University of Virginia

Co-sponsored with the Program on Constitutional Government

**Monday, February 26th - "Gender and American Citizenship After World War II "

Gretchen Ritter, Associate Professor, University of Texas at Austin and Fellow of Law and Government, Harvard Law School

Co-sponsored with the American Politics Research Workshop

Friday, March 2nd - "Reclaiming the City: Metropolitan Inequalities and Coalitions for Change"

Margaret Weir, Professor of Sociology and Political Science,
University of California, Berkeley

***Friday, March 16th - "Protection without Capture: Why Do Larger Firms Receive Quicker FDA Drug Approvals?"

Daniel Carpenter, Assistant Professor of Political Science, University of Michigan
Co-sponsored with the Harvard/MIT Seminar on Positive Political Economy

**Monday, April 9th - "The 2000 Presidential Election: Can Retrospective Voting be Saved?"

Morris Fiorina, Senior Fellow at the Hoover Institution and Professor of Political Science, Stanford University

Co-sponsored with the American Politics Research Workshop

Coming in April... seminar by Robert Putnam. Details later.

---

---

CAPS seminars normally meet in Littauer M-16 from 4-6 p.m.

* Faculty Club luncheon, sign up sheet in the graduate student lounge.

**These co-sponsored events will take place in Littauer M-17 from 4-6 p.m.

***This co-sponsored event will take place at the CBRSS, 34 Kirkland St. from 4-6 p.m.

For further information, contact the CAPS office at 495-2724